UNVEILING THE SHOW MINI-SITE & THE VIRTUAL BUSINESS CARD APP FOR EXHIBITORS & RETAILERS

INNOVATIVE SHOW EXPERIENCE:

Imagine, at the trade show, an exhibitor opens the SendContact Trade Show app, and like magic, every buyer nearby will receive the exhibitor's contact information, catalog, a highlight video of their company, and even information about products for sale. That's not all; the Show Mini-Site comes with a complete payment system ready to take orders and process payments. You no longer need to bring a Square payment device or terminal. The SendContact Show Mini-Site gives exhibitors the magical way to connect with buyers, present products, and sell effectively at the show.

WHAT IS A SHOW MINI-WEBSITE?

Welcome to SendContact, a groundbreaking platform for show organizers, exhibitors and buyers connect. Our flagship feature, the Show Mini-Website, empowers exhibitors to create a dynamic online presence before the event, transforming the traditional trade show experience.

SHOW MINI-WEBSITE BENEFITS:

SendContact allows show organizers to provide exhibitors with the tools to build a personalized Show Mini-Website. This feature serves as a powerful promotional tool, enabling exhibitors to showcase their catalogs, videos, and highlight new products in advance. Exhibitors can easily share a link to their Show Mini-Website with prospective clients, creating anticipation and engagement before the show even begins.

PRESENTATION & SALES

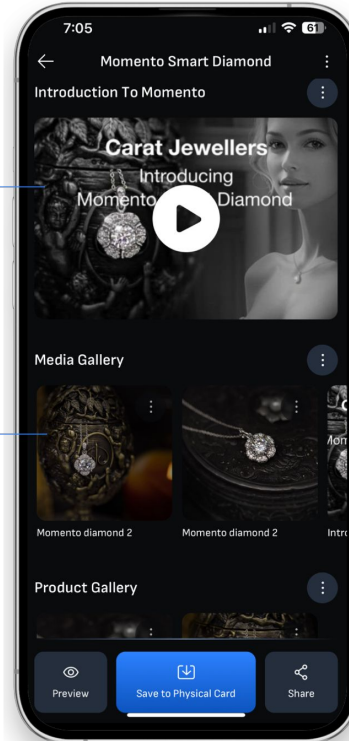

SendContact goes beyond being just a presentation tool; it serves as a mini-website and a shop that enables you to make quick and hassle-free edits.

You can use it to showcase and sell products or services.

STREAMLINED ONBOARDING PROCESS:

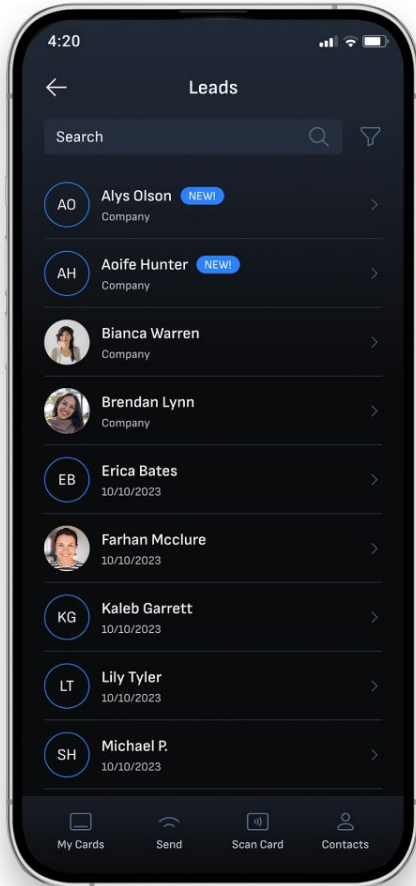

SendContact takes the initiative to reach out to all exhibitors, facilitating a seamless onboarding process for the Show Mini-Site. SendContact provides robust tutorials and simple instructions for exhibitors to easily build it on their own if they choose to do so.

EXPERIENCE THE SHOW MINI-SITE MAGIC

Embarking on a mission to redefine show experiences. Our platform revolutionizes the traditional by eliminating the need for cumbersome catalogs and business cards, offering a seamless avenue for buyers and exhibitors to pre-qualify each other through our cutting-edge Bluetooth technology. It is a new era of trade show engagement, where technology meets efficiency with the Show Mini-Site experience.

POST-SHOW FOLLOW-UP:

The SendContact technology offers a valuable tool for follow-up after the show. When a buyer uses the SendContact app to save your contact information, you will automatically receive theirs in your contact listing without having to ask for it. This ensures you will never miss any valuable leads at the show.

Don't lose track of potential contacts and make every contact count.

OUR MISSION

SendContact is dedicated to providing the best trade show experience, offering an unparalleled opportunity for trade show organizers to elevate their exhibitors and attendees to new heights. Embrace this innovative way to connect, present, and sell effectively at your next show.
